THE TOURING GUIDE TO BRITISH COLUMBIA'S
WINERIES

AN INTRODUCTION TO TOURING BRITISH COLUMBIA'S WINERIES

TAKE A DAY TRIP. A week-long wander. Or simply spend the rest of your life touring the more than 120 welcoming wineries of British Columbia. Spread across three beautiful regions, wine touring here offers some of the most spectacular scenery in North America. Then add the restaurants, the spas, the championship golf, the five-star resorts and the quaint B&Bs. Let's just say the tour may take longer than expected. And we haven't even mentioned the wines that are winning favour around the world.

Blue Mountain Vineyards in autumn, Okanagan Falls

EXPERIENCE WINE COUNTRY at its best in the thriving vineyards of British Columbia's wine areas – Vancouver Island, the Fraser Valley and the Okanagan. Use this touring guide, together with your BC Road Map, to navigate your way from vineyard to award-winning vineyard, with any number of unexpected discoveries along the way.

We have selected wineries with tasting rooms as well as breweries and cideries to round out your BC tasting experience. Refer to the directories beginning on page 11 for detailed winery address information and visit HelloBC.com to further plan your wine vacation.

VANCOUVER ISLAND WINERIES

VANCOUVER ISLAND'S WINES are perfectly matched to the artisan produce harvested by the passionate locals. Truly a terroir like no other, the temperate coastal climate of Vancouver Island and the Gulf Islands means that vines can easily survive the mid-winter chills while the long, warm summers are ideal for a variety of wines. New wineries are sprouting up throughout the Cowichan Valley, crafting remarkable examples of reds and whites that reflect the ethos of the island. These boutique wineries are down-to-earth and generally family-owned, accenting the uniquely Pacific lifestyle with their exquisite wines. Chances are, your route will take you past coastal villages and island outposts featuring local crafts, so your pace will probably slow down to “island time” in no time.

FRASER VALLEY WINERIES

FOLLOWING THE COURSE OF THE FRASER RIVER, the fertile soils of the valley are an ideal setting to savour the handcrafted wines and produce of British Columbia's primary agricultural region. Just an hour's drive east of the urban landscape of Vancouver, the Fraser Valley's generous climate is just right for white wines like Gewürtztraminer, Chardonnay and Bacchus, while lighter bodied reds like Pinot Noir and Gamay flourish here as well. Set among mountains, forests, vegetable and dairy farms, the valley is also famous for its fruit and berry wines, which continue to win awards and raise expectations with their balance and crisp acidity. Surrounded by the Coast Mountains, any turn off the highway puts you in the middle of a pastoral setting, and light years away from the city.

OKANAGAN WINERIES

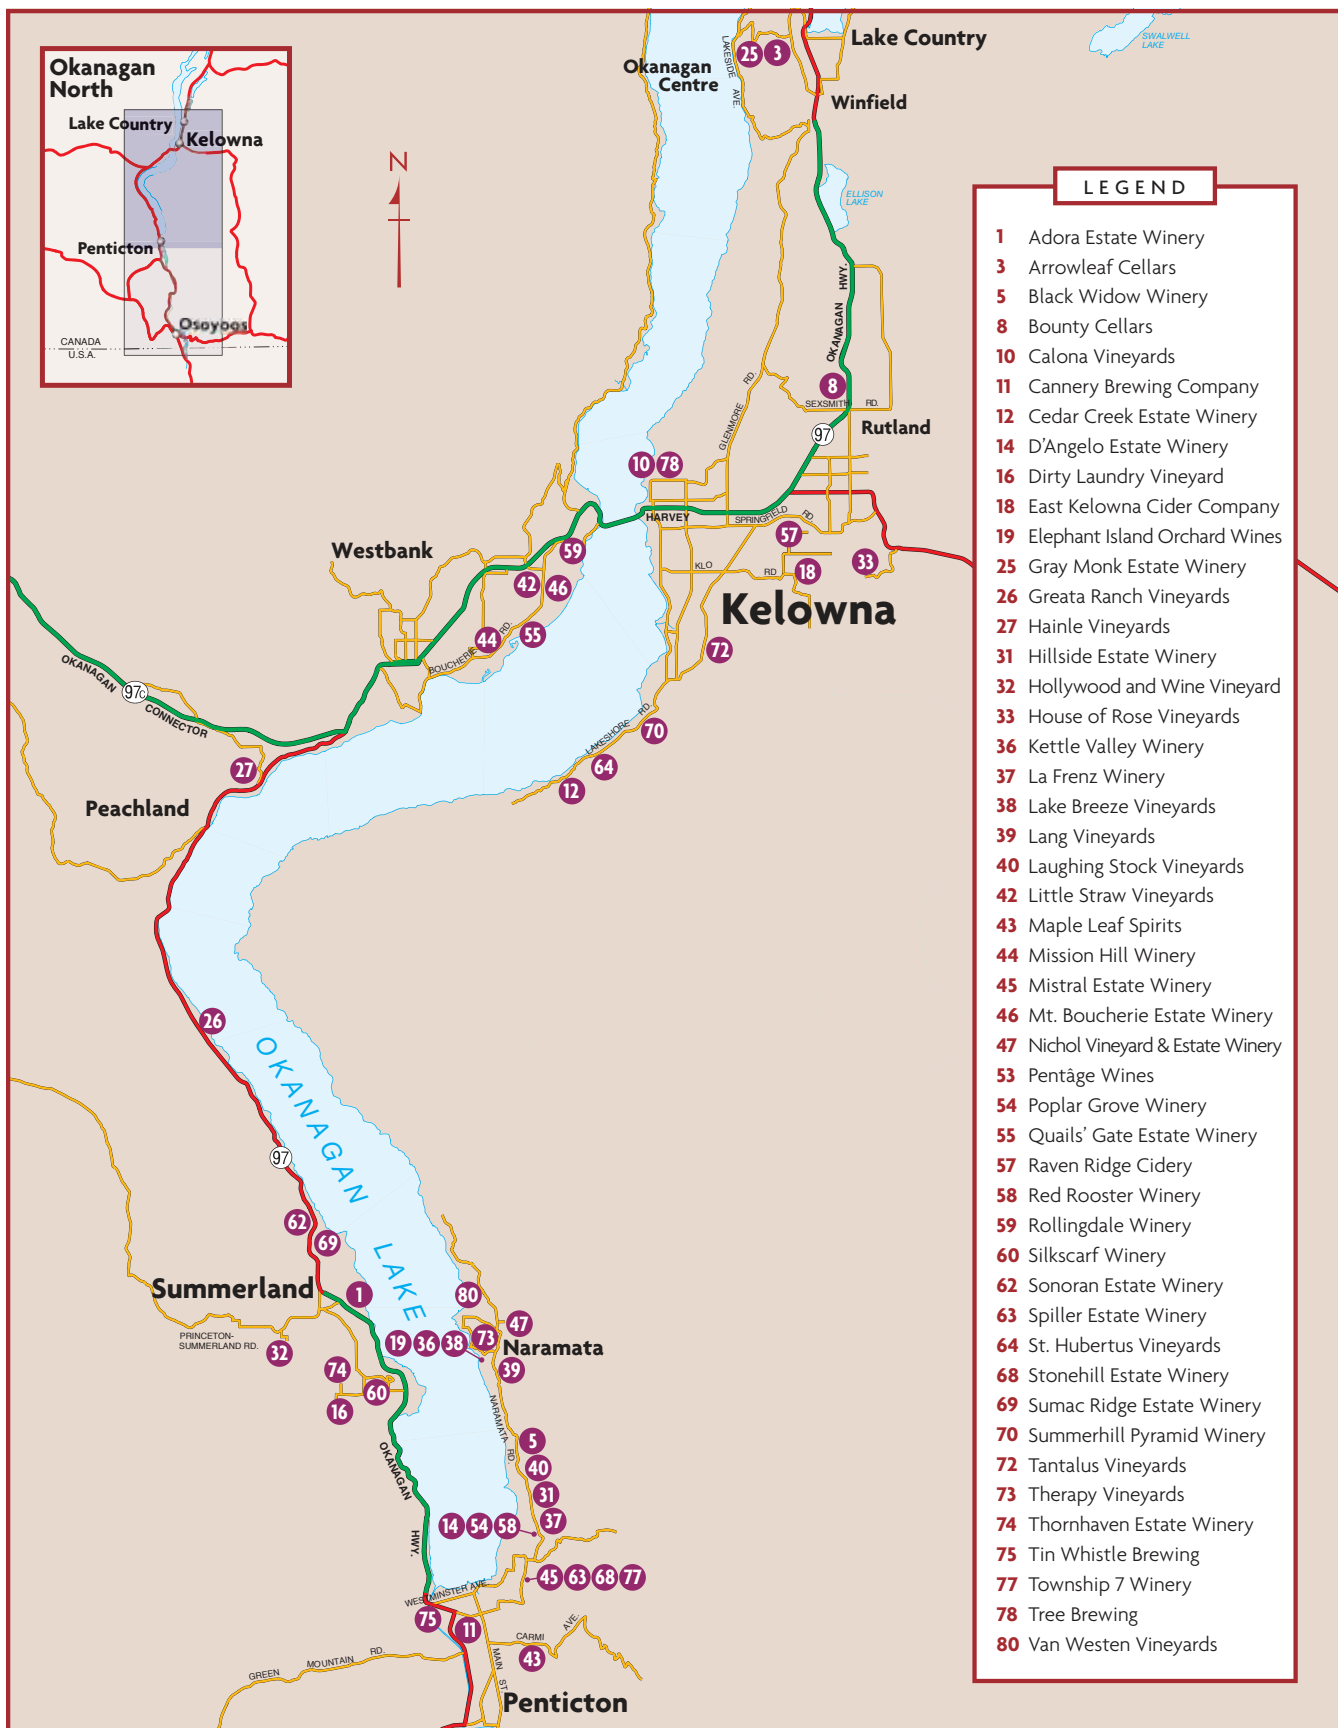

THE OKANAGAN VALLEY is the heart of award-winning British Columbian winemaking.

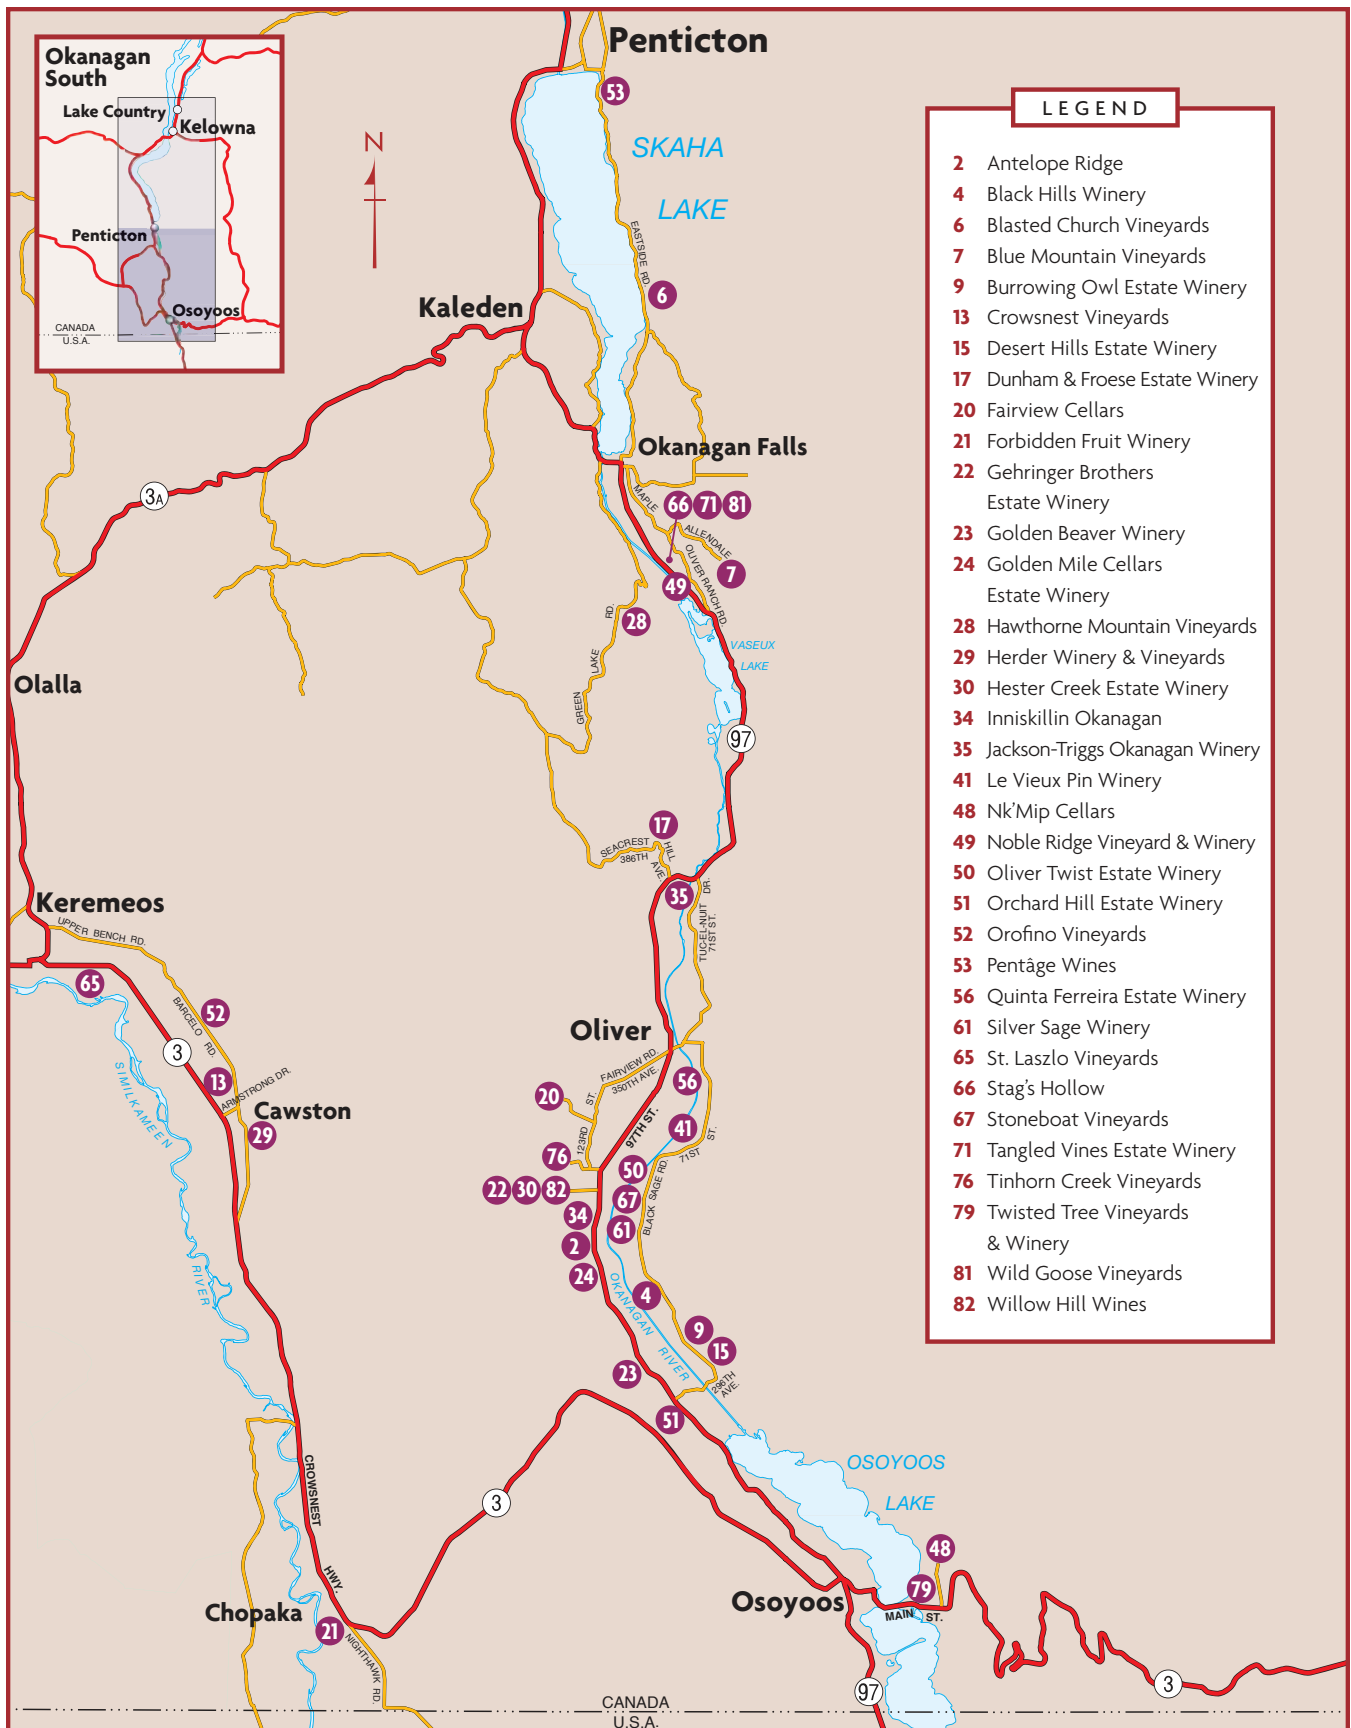

Located just four hours east of the coast, the valley is tucked between the mountain ranges that make up most of BC. Long, hot days with cloudless skies give way to cool nights that foster the radiant flavours that are so distinctly Okanagan. This is traditionally orchard country, with a long history of growing delectable fruit like peaches, apples, pears and cherries. People swear that these flavours have been trapped in the earth here, yielding the famously juicy wines that regularly sell out in advance. Vineyards are perched on hillsides and terraces, offering stunning views of the gorgeous, glacier-sculpted valley and lakes. An easy day's drive will take you past manicured championship golf courses and relaxing lakeside resorts that will have you measuring your trip in experiences, not kilometres.
